Cayce, a gifted student, was a member of St. Pius X Student Council, yearbook editor, in the Good Handwriting Club, and an honor roll student from the fourth through the eighth grades. She was a cheerleader, and played on the soccer and basketball teams. The highlight of the eighth grade year Carol Night, found Cayce in the Angelic Choir. She played the part of an Angel as we believe she is today. With the strong foundation Cayce received at St. Pius X, she was confident that she could succeed in every endeavor. She was grateful for her loving parents and family and proud and happy that St. Pius X School was a part of her life.
